Is Saved!"

The man who delays starting up his house heating apparatus until the bitting cold weather is actually upon us will save many dollars and much disagreeable work. Frequently these first frosty mornings and chilly nights the greater part of the day will prove to be mild and delightful. One or two modern odorless gas radiators will give you all the heat you need for that morning dip in the right temperature, and to insure a cheerful, warm dining room, light it an hour or so in the evening if you feel the need, where you read or play that game of bridge. Our prices are low. Consult us; we may be able to suggest the right stove for the right purpose. Remember the gas range saves time, saves work, saves dollars every day in the year, the cleanest and best way to cook. The Roud Water Heater always ready for your inspection.

TAFTVILLE

Naturalization Club Holds Social—Notes and Personal.

A large proportion of the members of the Naturalization club and their friends enjoyed a delightful social at the club building on Pratt avenue on Thursday evening. Whist was played and refreshments were served. Much dissatisfaction seemed to be felt at the result of the election in Canada when the announcement was made that the conservatives had won. Aside from the subject of reciprocity the local people seem to admire Laurier and don't resent his defeat. The evening's program was much enjoyed and the party did not disperse until a late hour.

FUNERAL.

Mrs. Paschal Casavant.
The funeral of Mrs. Paschal Casav-ant, formerly of Taftville, took place from her late home in Providence on Thursday morning with services in the Sacred Heart church there at nine o'clock. There were many relatives and friends in attendance. Burial was in Providence. Mrs. J. C. Maran and A. Plon, who attended the funeral, returned home Thursday evening.

been visiting friends in town for a few days.

at the Taftville postoffice for the week ending September 23, and is addressed to Miss Minnie Manning.

by the Pinochle club to the winners in

BUILDING GUNBOATS IN CONNECTICUT

Marked Contrast Between Those of Fifty Years Ago and the Type of Today—Mass Meeting to Instill Confidence in the Union Cause—More Companies Leave to Join Regiments.

When the civil war broke out the question of gunboats was one which received immediate attention, and at different points these were constructed as fast as possible, and this section was in that business. Norwich was the name of one of them, and at Mystic in the past week fifty years ago on being built. Marked is the contrast between that boat, half brigriggered, to be built in 94 days, with railroad iron and steel plates bolted together, and the present day type of battleships.

The question of taxation was likewise quite different then, for it was fifty years ago that a city tax of four mills was voted as sufficient. The past week a half century also was marked by the same general hustle in behalf of recruits and the filling up of the several regiments then forming. There was activity at the front, with the reported surrender of General Mulligan's forces in Missouri, but here the several captives were getting comfortable. The
front, and in some instances mothers were trying hard to keep their boys from going to the front.

Sixth Regiment Off.

The following are items taken from The Bulletin, corresponding to the past week in 1861:

Sept. 18, 1861—The members of the Sixth and Seventh regiments have received $10 each from the state. The
front yesterday, and the Seventh goes today. It is believed in Hartford that the Eighth regiment will be filled and ready to leave for the war this week.

Captain John Branch has enlisted some 70 men in Baltic and vicinity.
Captain Leggett's company from New London, the number of 50 men, passed through this city for Hartford yesterday afternoon.

The county fair opened with poor weather and rain, but with a large display of goods for prizes.

Government Loan Subscriptions.

Sept. 19, 1861—Arrangements completed for the excursion here as guests of Columbian commandery, of St.
John's commandery, K. of P., of Providence, tomorrow, dinner to be served at the Watrous house.

Frank Nichols, Esq., president of the Thames bank, has been appointed by Secretary Chase to receive subscriptions to the new 7.30 per cent. government loan. The necessary bonds have already been entered into and the subscription books will be open in a few days.

A beautiful Union flag was raised on the cupola of the Plainfield Academy on Wednesday afternoon. It supplies the place of one destroyed by some secession sympathizers during the summer.

Mass Meeting.

Sept. 20, 1861—Big mass meeting at New London, with Gen. A. E. Rich-ingham president and presiding officer.
He introduced Hon. Daniel S. Dickson of New York, and later spoke himself. Daniel P. Tyler also spoke. The Norwich Brass band played.

The marriage of Francis B. Stocking and Mary B. Edwards took place in this city yesterday.

NATIONAL LECTURER HALL OPENS FIVE DAYS' CAMPAIGN

Will Speak in Eastern Connecticut Towns Where Prohibition Tickets Are in Field.

Under the auspices of the prohibition party, Charles J. Hall of Los Angeles, Cal., national lecturer, is in New London and Windham counties now for a five-day campaign in which he will deliver a score of addresses at a number of different points. National Lecturer Hall began his speechmaking tour on Thursday, when he spoke in Norwich at noon at the Hopkins & Allen corner on Franklin street, at South Windham at 8:30 p. m., and at Lebanon at 8 p. m. A Clean Sweep is the title under which Mr. Hall makes his prohibition talks, which

CHARLES J. HALL.

have been heard by good sized crowds at the various points. The meetings held in this section. He is an experienced platform and temperance speaker, having participated in the Texas Agricultural and having been upon the Chateauque program in Iowa.

At the rallies Mr. Hall is accompanied by County Organizer Ernest Allison Smith and by Clarence Parker of Yantic as bugler and cornetist. In the evening they use red fire to draw the crowd together, while the bugle serves this purpose in the daytime.
On Friday there were rallies at Willamic at 1:30 p. m., at South Canterbury at 2: at Mansfield Center at 7; and at Willimantic at 8 p. m. The prohibitionists have tickets in ten of the towns in the two counties, Mansfield Center and Preston having their first prohibition tickets on record.

Mr. Hall's rallies in connection with the local campaign will be continued today, Sunday and Monday. He speaks today at Westery at 10:30 in the Seventh-day Adventist church, at 3 o'clock at Mystic, at 7 p. m. at Stonington, and at 8 p. m. at Pawtucket.
On Sunday his schedule is for 10:30 a. m. at Calvary Baptist church, West-ery; 12:30 at Pottery's mills; 3:30 in Norwich at Franklin street park; 6 p. m. at Epworth league of Federal Street M. E. church, New London; and at 7:30 p. m. at the service at the same church.

On Monday, which closes his tour, he speaks here at the United States Fishery company gate at 12:30; at New London at 3:30; at the Niantic depot at 4:45 and at the New London parade at 8 p. m.

John Tower endeavored to sell his Elizabeth and the two in London in June, 1817, but the authorities prevented the sale.

Twenty Oxen Haul Cannon.

Sept. 21, 1861—Fifteen members of the Sarsfield Guard went to New Haven yesterday, under charge of John Murphy, the Harland Rifles now numbering eighty men, and will leave for Hartford early next week.

The ironclad gunboat building at Mystic for the government will be 200 feet long, 36 feet wide and 12 feet deep.
She will be half brig rigged and will carry a very heavy armament. Her armor will consist of railroad iron and steel plates bolted through the entire side of the vessel. She will be completed in about ninety days.

One of James' largest rifled cannon, the last remaining at Watch Hill since the trial last fall, was brought to West-ery by ten yoke of oxen on Tuesday.
It will be forwarded to the seat of war.
Twenty-four carloads of ammunition for the army, consisting of ball cartridges for muskets and rifles, the shell for cannon were brought through here by the Norwich and Worcester railroad and shipped to New York by propeller on Friday.

Four Mill City Tax.

Sept. 23, 1861—At a city meeting held in the Town hall on Saturday Mayor Chase presiding an estimate of the city expense for the ensuing year was presented, and a tax of four mills on a dollar was laid. Z. R. Robbins was elected collector.

Between Norwich and New London extensive repairs are in progress on the New London Northern. The sharp curve in many places are being straightened, the track ties and roadbed renewed and repaired, and everything done to improve the condition of the road for the passage of the steamboat train.

New England's Forces.

Sept. 24, 1861—Maine has seven regiments in the field, New Hampshire four and Vermont three. Massachusetts has sixteen full regiments, one battalion of rifles, and one battery of light artillery at the seat of war. Besides these, she had four other regiments of infantry ready, or nearly so, a regiment of cavalry two-thirds full, and three batteries of artillery organized and waiting only for their guns. Rhode Island has two regiments in the field and a third forming. She has also four batteries in service. Connecticut has four full regiments of infantry in the field, besides two companies of cavalry. Three other regiments are nearly ready for service.

Captain Ward's company has been mustered into the service of the United States at Hartford, lacking fifteen men of full ranks. It is understood that the Harland Rifles go in the Eight or the Tenth, but they are anxious to go in the former.

R. G. Perkins, a native of New London, holds the position of quartermaster's sergeant in the First regiment, South Carolina Rifles, Colonel Branch.
He is a brother of Joseph Perkins, late of Captain Hawley's company, First C.
V., now engaged in raising the Ninth regiment.

Marriage of Edward P. Jilson and Ellen Lincoln by Rev. J. P. Gulliver on Sept. 22.

Franklin Nichols opened the books for the subscription to the national loan at the Thames bank.
